Administration

To the class of 2014 I offer my congratulations. Since you arrived in the fall of 2008, you have positively made your presence known. There is no area where your achievements haven't shown brightly - be it in academics, the arts, music, in athletics, or on stage. Now you are off on a new adventure - high school. Along with your parents, we've given you a good foundation. You've shown what you can achieve. We expect that you will continue your efforts as you move forward. Remember, we are all proud of you and wish you well on the next stage of your educational journey at the high school.

Best wishes to the class of 2014! High school is the next phase of your education, but all of us need to be lifelong learners. That takes effort and a willingness to make mistakes along the way. Someone recently wrote, "If I'm only succeeding, I'm not learning." That made an impression on me. If we don't stretch and challenge ourselves, and if we don't try and fail along the way, we won't learn and grow. Keep on trying and you will continue to learn. Everyone falls down; you learn and succeed when you get up and keep going.

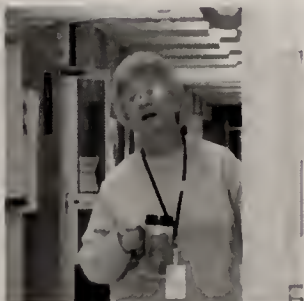

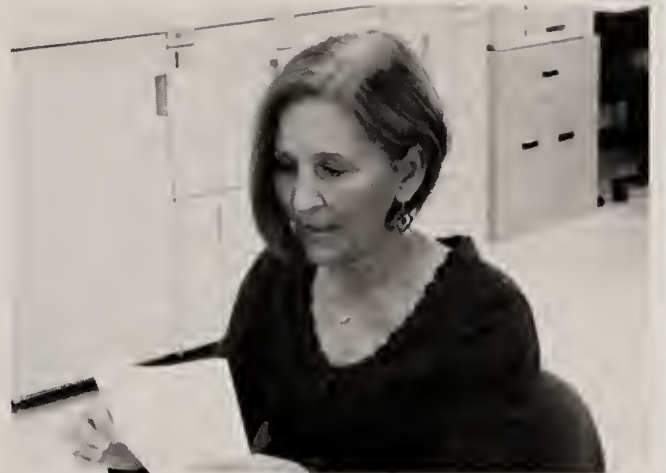

It is important to keep in mind that hard work will always have a positive impact in your life. A strong work ethic will overcome many deficiencies students may have. No matter what struggles are in your life, working hard can overcome those challenges. In addition to hard work, it is critical to have a positive attitude. Life is too short not to focus on the positive things in life. Anyone can go through life complaining about the rotten things, but a truly positive person can find something special in all situations. I wish the 8th grade class the best of luck in the future.

Congrats to the class of 2014! Now comes the next challenge: high school. It will be what you make it, a fabulous experience, a challenge, or somewhere in between. Use that brain, use your imagination, figure out who you are and who you want to become. Set some goals and start achieving them. You may be surprised at what you can do! Pick friends who share your passions, who bring you up instead of down. Enjoy the next four years. I wish you success and happiness.
